1. What attacks on biblical Christianity have you seen come from the culture around us?
  2. What attacks on biblical Christianity have you seen come from within the church during our lifetime?
  3. Describe from Jude, the portrait of a false teacher.
  4. If God ultimately preserves the Christian, how can believers keep themselves in the love of God?
  5. What role do the Scriptures play in the believer's perseverance? What role do the Scriptures play in your life?
  6. How can the church be a merciful place for those who struggle with doubts or genuine questions? What doubts or questions have you had in your life and how has the Lord responded?
  7. Who should be "snatched from the fire" and why does Jude use this language?
  8. What is "mercy" and how is it different from "grace?" How does a believer exercise "mercy" toward someone, even while being careful not to be defiled by them? How are we to be careful not to be defiled by the unbelieving, often hostile, world, while not totally withdrawing from them?
